Mommy Khimar's journey began with a simple act of kindness. In 2015, Jamilah noticed a need among Muslim girls for modest and fashionable head coverings that reflected their cultural and religious values. Inspired, she launched Mommy Khimar, initially as a small-scale effort to provide hijabs to underserved communities.

What started as a humble initiative quickly blossomed into a multifaceted organization that goes far beyond providing clothing. Through a holistic approach, Mommy Khimar fosters personal growth, academic success, and entrepreneurial spirit in young Muslim women.

Education Empowers

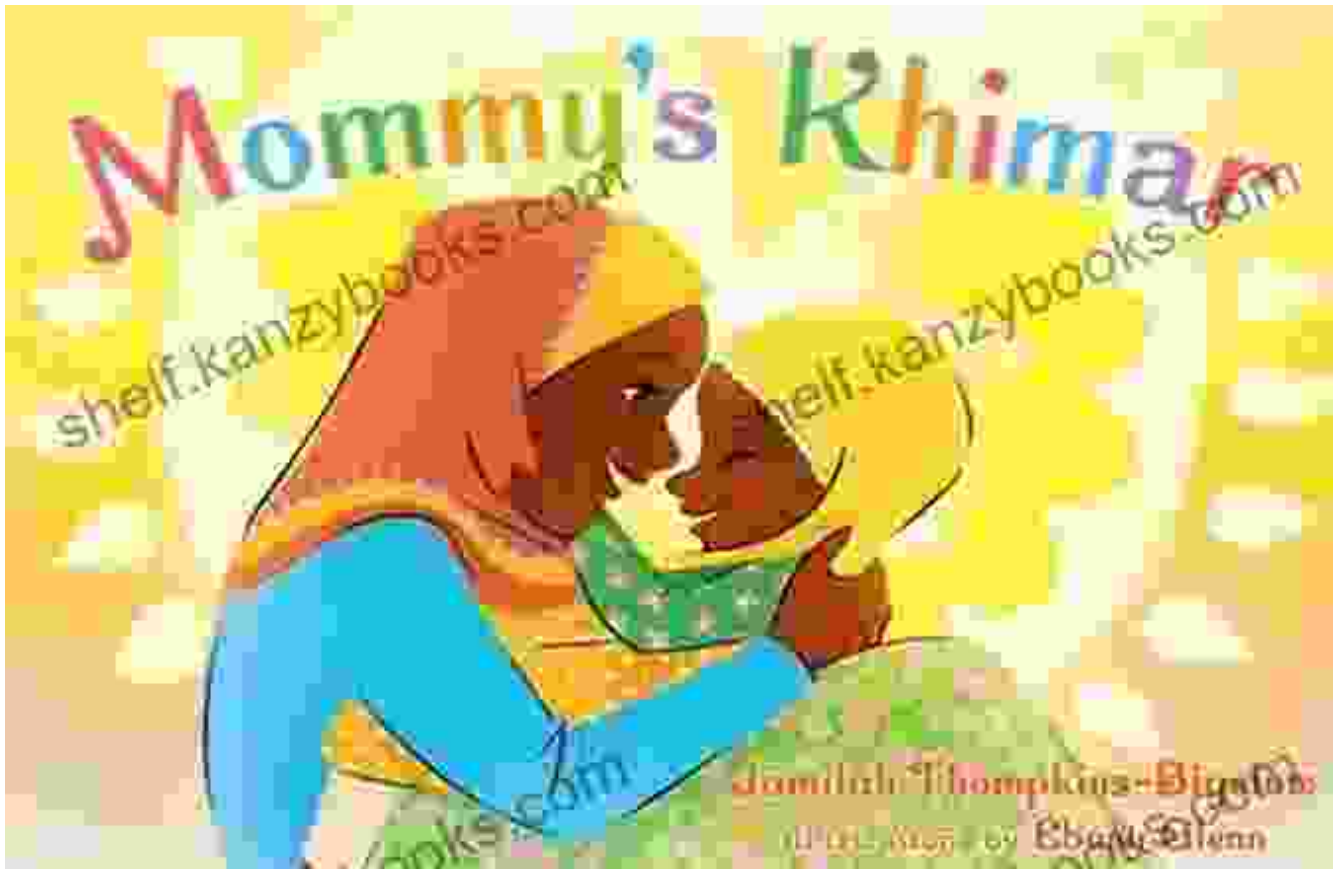

Education is the cornerstone of Mommy Khimar's mission. The organization provides access to tutoring, mentorship, and scholarships to help its students excel academically. By investing in their intellectual development, Mommy Khimar empowers young women to pursue higher education and achieve their dreams.

Entrepreneurship Ignites

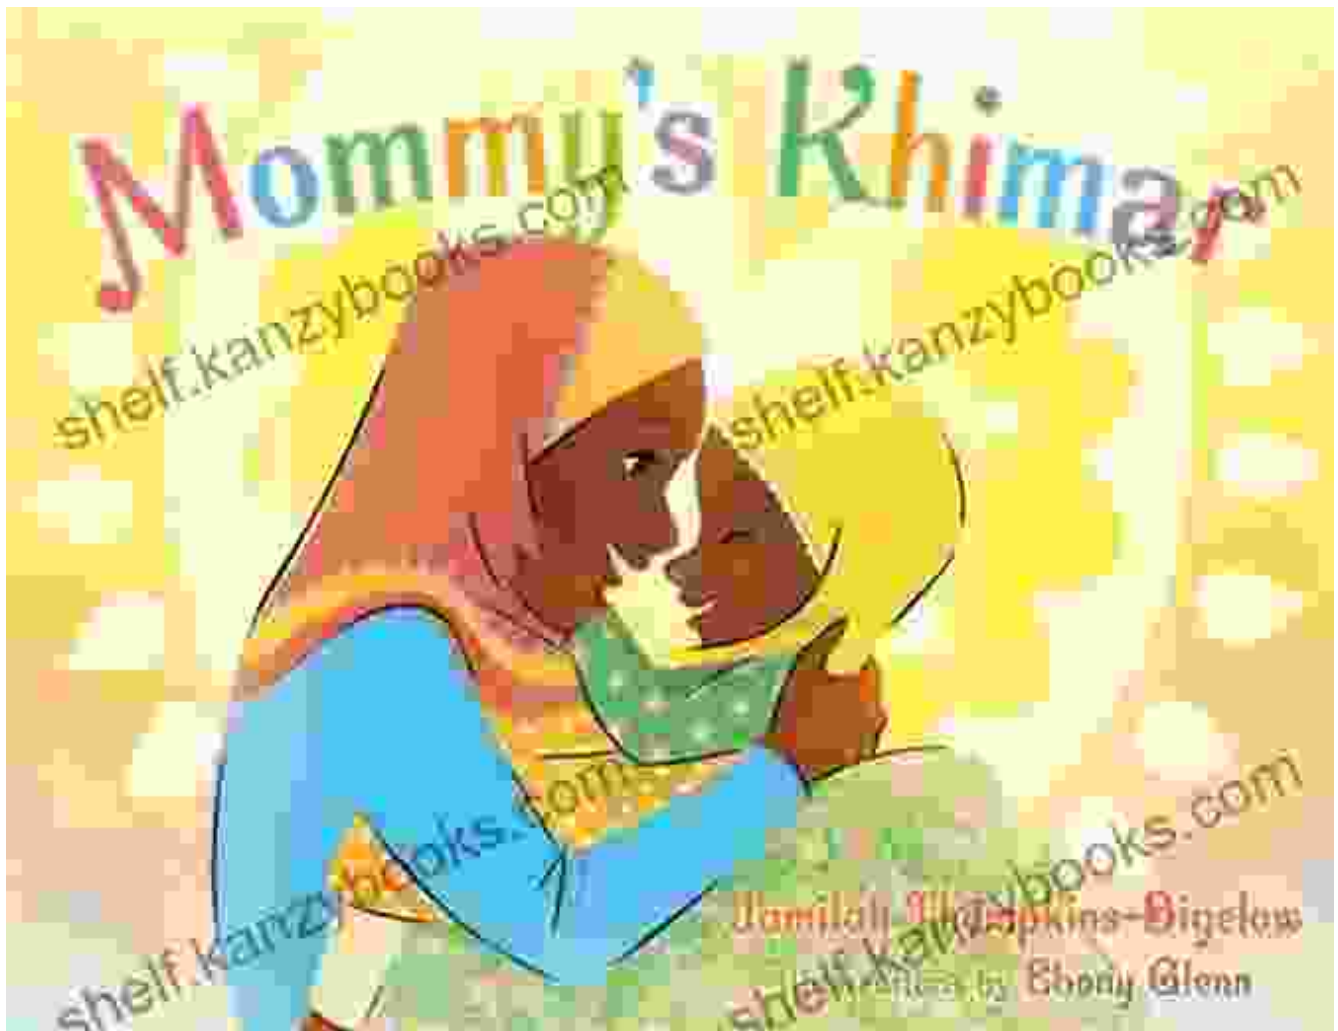

Mommy Khimar recognizes the economic challenges faced by many Muslim women. To address this, the organization provides hands-on training in entrepreneurship and financial literacy. Through workshops, mentorship, and microloans, Mommy Khimar enables its participants to start their own businesses and become financially independent.

Community Uplifts

Beyond education and entrepreneurship, Mommy Khimar fosters a strong sense of community among its members. The organization hosts regular events, workshops, and gatherings that provide a safe and supportive space for young Muslim women to connect, share experiences, and inspire each other.

A Role Model for All

At the helm of Mommy Khimar, Jamilah Thompkins Bigelow serves as an inspiring role model for young Muslim women and beyond. Her unwavering passion, dedication, and commitment to empowering others are a testament to the transformative power of one person's vision.

Mommy Khimar's Impact

The impact of Mommy Khimar has been immeasurable. Since its inception, the organization has distributed over 30,000 hijabs, provided educational support to countless students, and incubated over 50 female-led businesses.
