Our First Eid Celebrations is a heartwarming and educational children's book that introduces young readers to the Muslim holiday of Eid al-Fitr. Through simple text and vibrant illustrations, the book follows a young Muslim family as they prepare for and celebrate Eid.

The book begins with a brief explanation of Ramadan, the Muslim month of fasting. Readers learn that Muslims fast from sunrise to sunset during Ramadan, and that Eid al-Fitr is a celebration that marks the end of Ramadan.

The family in the book is excited to celebrate Eid. They go shopping for new clothes, decorate their home, and prepare a special meal. On the day of Eid, the family goes to the mosque for prayers and then visits friends and family. They eat delicious food, exchange gifts, and play games.

Our First Eid Celebrations is a wonderful way to introduce young children to the Muslim holiday of Eid al-Fitr. The book is full of beautiful illustrations and engaging text, and it provides a valuable opportunity to learn about different cultures and traditions.
