Gobbles was not your average turkey. He had a secret weapon: his powerful farts. Gobbles could fart louder than a thunderstorm and stinkier than a skunk. He could even use his farts to propel himself through the air.

Gobbles lived on a farm with a kind farmer and his family. The farmer had named all of his turkeys, but Gobbles was his favorite. Gobbles was always making the farmer and his family laugh with his silly antics.

But one day, everything changed. The farmer's wife announced that they were having turkey for Thanksgiving dinner. Gobbles was horrified. He didn't want to be eaten!

Gobbles knew he had to escape. But how? The farm was surrounded by a high fence and there was no way he could fly over it. Gobbles thought and thought, but he couldn't come up with a plan.

Finally, Gobbles had an idea. He would use his farts to propel himself over the fence. Gobbles took a deep breath and let out a mighty fart. The force of the fart sent him flying into the air. Gobbles flew over the fence and landed safely on the other side.

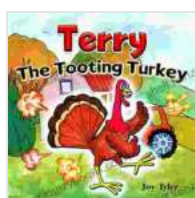

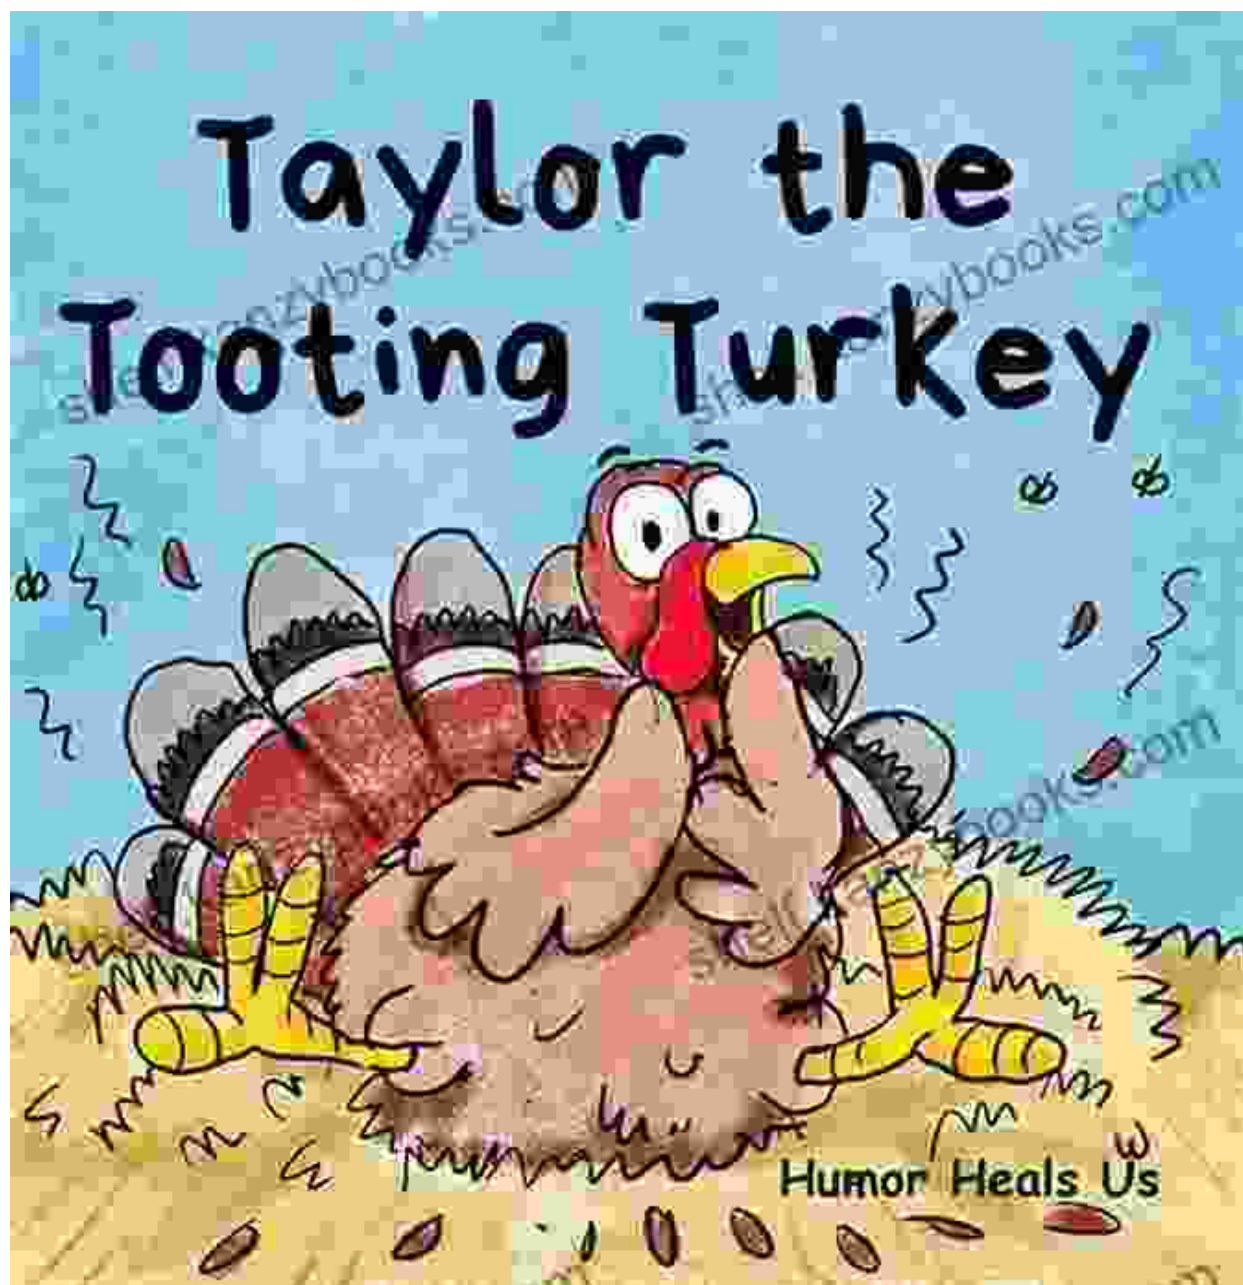

Gobbles was free! He ran and ran until he came to a forest. He was safe at last.

Gobbles lived happily ever after in the forest. He never forgot the farmer and his family, but he was glad he had escaped being eaten for Thanksgiving dinner.

The End

This heartwarming and funny story is perfect for children of all ages. It teaches the importance of being yourself and never giving up on your dreams.
